

Terra Lingua USA Pure Homestay Program

Terra Lingua offers a pure homestay program for 3 and 4 weeks. This program does not include any excursions or planned activities but provides students a chance to spend some time with a host family.

You can be sure that host families submit to the same amount of checking that our academic families do. We interview, background check and visit the home of all families interested in hosting to be sure we place your students with the right family.

We currently offer pure homestay opportunities for single students (no groups) in the following states:

Connecticut
Michigan
New Jersey
Ohio
Oregon
California

•Please note this list is subject to change so please confirm availability
